Moral Education as short-term course in school

5196. SHRI SANTOSH BAGRODIA :
SHRI SURESH KALMADI :

Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether there is a need to include Moral, Social and Ethical value educaion in schools as a short-term subject;

(b) if so, whether Government intend to introduce this new short-term subject and by when;

(c) if not, the reasons therefore; and

(d) whether it is a fact that there is a greater need for teaching Moral, Social and Ethical values to the young generation keeping in mind the western influence on our daily lives ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (DR. VALLABHBHAI RAMJIBHAI KATHIRIA): (a) to (d) Moral, Social and Ethical Value Education has not been recommended as a separate short-term or full term school subject in the National Curriculum Framework for School Education (NCFSE)-2000. These values in appropriate form are recommended to be suitably integrated with all subjects at all the stages of schooling. Inculcation of these values among the young children is a great need in today's world in order to preserve and strengthen the traditional Indian value system and culture.
